

London Irish Community Voices

Choral Leader Call Out

The London Irish Centre (LIC) is looking for a Choral Leader to help launch and lead our new project, London Irish Community Voices, in Autumn 2022, who is passionate about Irish Culture and working across communities.

London Irish Community Voices is a new community choir created to bring the community together through their mutual love of singing Irish songs. This choir will help promote positive wellbeing amongst its members and deliver a series of health benefits associated with choral singing.

No audition or experience is required from the choir's members, and they can expect to sing a wide range of songs, from traditional folk ballads through to modern Irish pop-rock, and a few alternatives in between. Because of the accessible nature of the choir, focus will be on the experience of singing collectively, and technique will be secondary and introduced slowly to members. The choir will be welcoming, accessible and encourage its members to bring their own ideas and talents to the table.

We are looking for a creative, friendly, high-energy individual who is excited to work directly with the community. They will bring their experience of leading choirs and have experience working with a diverse mix of people, of differing experiences and backgrounds.

We encourage all our freelancers to bring their own teaching styles, ideas and creativity to the project, whilst upholding the LIC's values and mission at the heart of their work.

We will be recruiting an accompaniment to assist in the delivery of choir rehearsals, of which we welcome recommendations.

When – October 2022, 10-consecutive-weeks, days tbc, 7-9pm in the evenings.

Choir Master Rate - £140 per week for 10 consecutive weeks.

Commitment – We will expect the Choir Master to be available for the entire term, with the ambition to work with the LIC to grow and develop the choir over a year.
